Dear Colonel Harris:

In Mr. Dulles' absence from the city, I am replying to your telegram in which you invite to his attention an article in the 1 March 1960 issue of Look Magazine dealing with the U. S. Army in Korea.

You ask if this article is on sale in the PX in Korea and request Mr. Dulles' judgement on the effect this article will have on public morale. These are matters which are outside the scope of responsibility of the CIA and I believe your inquiry should be more properly directed to the Department of Defense or the Department of the Army.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
